

Arsht Ethics Debate at SportsFest '08

Sunday, February 3 – 1:30 PM-3:30PM

CLASSROOMS, MAHONEY RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE

THE ENTIRE UM COMMUNITY WELCOME TO ATTEND!!!

Join your residential college in a competitive discussion of hot issues in sports ethics. Teams are forming now for the Arsht Ethics Debate at SportsFest '08.

This exciting event will sharpen participants' sports knowledge, argument skills, and critical thinking abilities.

Participating teams will receive 100 points for their residential college and a chance to win the Arsht Ethics Debate at SportsFest Cup. Winners will enjoy prizes as well!

The Ethics Society will host a training session for all interested students on 1/29/2008 at 6:30 PM in UC 233.

For information on rules and signing up, contact the UM Ethics Society at UMEthicSociety@gmail.com.

Competition Format:

- Hecht, Stanford, Eaton, Mahoney, Pearson, University Village, and Apartment Area each enter 1 team
- Teams discuss 4 sports ethics cases handed out in advance
- Teams are matched up randomly for the Preliminary Round
- Highest-scoring teams meet in the Final Round.
